JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed on Count 1 of the Three Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: SIXTY (60) MONTHS.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), a deferred restitution hearing shall be calendared for November 23, 2014 at 1:00 P.M. An Amended judgment will be entered after such determination. If an amended judgment is not entered within ninety (90) days, the ability to order any restitution will terminate.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one (1) drug test within fifteen (15) days of release from imprisonment and at least two (2) periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight (8) tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;

4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency or alcohol abuse, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's mental health, drug and/or alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
7. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform twenty (20) hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office;
9. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation;
10. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity wherein he has custody, control or management of his employer's funds;
11. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee, consultant, or otherwise, in any business involving loan programs, real estate purchases or sales, or any other business involving the marketing of such businesses without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
12. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any access device, driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name or names without the prior approval of the Probation Officer; and
13. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant. The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Defendant is informed of his right to appeal.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment.

The Court hereby recommends that defendant be designated to the Lompoc facility.

To the extent the Bureau of Prisons determines that defendant is eligible, the Court further recommends that defendant be placed in the Bureau of Prisons 500-hour Drug and Alcohol Program.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
